Finalist	Proposed Name	Submission Notes	Expert Selection
#1	New Moon Solar	It's a play on midnight while still being it's own idea, with a "new beginning" vibe to it. I think it's an original sounding name too, while being a bit tongue-in-cheek	☐ Select finalist Notes: _____
#2	Rhyolite Power Systems	The work performed to include naming and art work is my original thoughts and work. Based on my research, “Rhyolite” a mineral name little used in business. Rhyolite Ridge is a geologic formation with a lithium deposit to be mined by Australian based “ioneer”. Note you may find a US Government satellite program referencing “Rhyolite”. My basic search does not show any other references to Rhyolite. Having spent many years working in technology environments, including Networking technology, Solar, oil & gas, Defense, and telecommunications, I believe the following naming convention may be suitable providing a unique naming and marketing structure going forward.	☐ Select finalist Notes: _____
#3	Stealth Solar Dynamics	Stealth Solar Dynamics is about clean, reliable power that works quietly in the background. The name reflects solar energy, smart backup power, and the confidence of staying powered when it matters most.	☐ Select finalist Notes: _____
#4	Resix Power	Resix is a short form of resilient. your product is definitely resilient. It is a short easy to remember name. it is easy to use on the global market.	☐ Select finalist Notes: _____
#5	KeraVolt Energy	Kera means Lightning or thunderbolt in Greek.	☐ Select finalist Notes: _____
#6	SolMax Solutions	SolMax Solutions represents a company focused on delivering maximum energy value from the sun. “Sol” comes from solar energy and the sun, reflecting clean, renewable power. “Max” represents maximum performance, efficiency, savings, and reliability. “Solutions” shows that the company provides complete energy solutions, not just products.
